EAKRING W.I.

At the Annual Meeting held in May, Gill Pennicott was re-elected as President and Committee Members agreed to serve for another year. After the ordinary business was dealt with the President introduced Ellie Briggs, County Advisor, who discussed the two proposed resolutions, "Decline in Rural Bus Services" and "Cervical Cancer Screening" which will be voted on at the National W.I. Annual Meeting at Bournemouth in June.

The next Meeting is on

Tuesday 18th June - 7.15p.m. Cator Hall

Topic - Bonsai Demonstration
Refreshments - Pam Alcock, Margaret Coupland
Vote of thanks - Jennifer Bartle
Please come and join us - everyone welcome.

EAKRING PARISH COUNCIL

Parish Council Vacancies

Eakring Parish Council currently has vacancies for two new parish councillors. The council will be filling these vacancies by co-option as soon as possible. To apply and for further information please email the Parish Clerk at eakringparishcouncil@gmail.com

Cycling Events - Sunday 16th & 23rd 2019

The Parish Council would like to make all residents aware that there are two cycling events running through Eakring. The first event on 16th June will be going through the village at approximately 10.15am until 3.45pm. The second event on the 23rd June will be around the area doing a variety of route lengths with the longest routes running through the village. There are no times for these going through the village but the event will be on for the entire day through the area. The next Meeting on the Parish Council is on - Wednesday 12th June 7.30p.m. Cator Hall.
